4 Purpose

The purpose of this RFP is to engage an agency/diagnostic laboratory to perform Hepatitis C Viral Load RNA test for Anti HCV positive patients.

5 Objectives

1. Conducting micro-elimination for Hepatitis C in Punjab's central and district prisons with thorough screening and confirmatory testing
2. Linking at least 90% of those with positive confirmatory diagnosis to the public sector for treatment

6 Background

FIND is an international non-profit organization based in Geneva, Switzerland. The organization is dedicated to activities that result in: 1) new diagnostic tools; 2) expanded access to these tools; and 3) strengthened diagnostic testing capacity for poverty-related diseases in low- and middle-income countries.
FIND is established in India as an independent non-profit Foundation created under Section 8 (Indian) Companies Act, 2013 with its offices in New Delhi. FIND India is the key implementing partner of Central TB Division, Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Govt of India for strengthening and expanding TB laboratory diagnostic capacity within the Revised National TB Control Program (RNTCP) supported by the Global Fund.

7 About the project

Global data suggests a higher prevalence and transmission of infectious diseases such as tuberculosis (TB), human immunodeficiency virus (HIV), syphilis, hepatitis B virus (HBV), and HCV among prisoners. Studies have found that HCV infection prevalence in prisons is higher than in normal population, ranging from 3.1% to 38% depending on HCV endemicity in the geographical location of the prison. Through the proposed activities, FIND will support micro-elimination efforts by introducing Hepatitis C screening among prison inmates. This will be followed up with confirmatory HCV diagnosis and further base line investigations and treatment initiation will be managed by DHS, Government of Punjab and prisons department. The intervention will be carried out in the 9 Central and 10 district prisons of Punjab with an estimated 21,400 in-mates over 18 months.

8 Scope of Work

- To perform Hepatitis C Viral Load RNA for Anti HCV positive patients by method that quantifies HCV RNA
- To be performed on: Whole blood - Plasma sample
- Method: PCR, Transcription Mediated Amplification (TMA)

Estimated HCV RNA – VL Test: 4200
Estimated HCV RNA – SVR Test: 4200

Project Sites

1. Ferozepur
2. Patiala
3. Ludhiana
4. Amritsar
5. Bathinda
6. Jalandhar at Kapurthala
7. Gurdaspur
8. Faridkot
9. Hoshiarpur

9 Summary of Test

The Hepatitis C virus (HCV), a significant cause of blood-borne hepatitis, is an enveloped virus containing a single-stranded positive sense RNA genome of approximately 9,500 nucleotides. It has been identified as the major etiological agent for post-transfusion non-A and non-B hepatitis worldwide.

Viral load testing is performed to determine the presence and measure the level of hepatitis C virus (HCV) in the blood. If HCV antibody test is positive that suggests that the patient is exposed to HCV. In a certain percentage of people who are exposed to HCV, the body clears the virus on its own. However, antibodies to HCV are still detectable. Therefore, it is necessary to do a viral load test, to determine if HCV is still in your body.

There are two approaches to measuring viral load: quantitative testing and qualitative testing. Quantitative testing uses different techniques to measure viral load, including polymerase chain reaction (PCR), branched-chain DNA (bDNA), and transcription-mediated amplification (TMA). Both PCR (real-time) and TMA measure HCV RNA levels in the blood and are accurate down to 10-15 IU/mL.

Quantitative testing is typically used before starting treatment to determine a baseline viral load for the purpose of evaluating treatment response. Qualitative testing is capable of detecting low levels of HCV RNA. It gives results as positive or negative and, in some cases, has a lower limit of detection below 10 IU/mL.

Qualitative testing is typically used to confirm diagnosis, where a specific viral count is not needed.

Any effort by Agencies to influence FIND in the examination, evaluation, ranking of Proposals, and recommendation for award of Contract may result in the rejection of the Agencies’ Proposal.

FIND will constitute a Selection Committee (SC) which will carry out the entire evaluation process. The FIND evaluation panel will assess the extent to which proposals submitted in response to this RFP meet the evaluation criteria below. The evaluations are divided into technical and cost factors. These factors will be evaluated relative to each other as described herein.

18.1 Technical Evaluation Criteria

Selection Committee while evaluating the Technical Proposals shall have no access to the Financial Proposals until the technical evaluation is concluded, and the competent authority accepts the recommendation. In assessing each proposal, FIND will allocate greater importance to technical factors than to cost factors. A two-stage procedure will be utilized in evaluating the proposals, with evaluation of the technical proposal being completed (first pass) prior to any price proposal being considered; and cost evaluation is only undertaken for technical submissions that have been previously shortlisted based on the content of the technical proposal.

The score assigned to each proposal will be of guidance in determining which proposal would provide the greatest value to FIND. However, FIND reserves the right not to employ raw scores in determining best value where it considers, in its sole discretion, that this would not be appropriate.
The technical merit of proposals will be evaluated based on the following evaluation criteria:

Agencies work plan as per scope of work defined in the RFP document

| Total Score - Technical Proposal | 100 |

A minimum technical score of 70 out of a maximum of 100 is required to pass the first evaluation. A proposal which fails to achieve the minimum technical threshold will not be considered for further evaluation.

18.2 Cost Evaluation Criteria

Financial proposals of only those agencies that are technically qualified shall be opened separately in presence of technically qualified agencies’ representatives who choose to attend, after completion of technical evaluation. The name of the Agencies, their technical score (if required) and their financial proposal shall be read aloud.

Committee will correct any computational errors. When correcting computational errors, in case of discrepancy between a partial amount and the total amount, or between word and figures, the former will prevail. In addition to the above corrections the items described in the Technical Proposal but not priced, shall be assumed to be included in the prices of other activities or items.

After opening of financial proposals, appropriate selection method shall be applied to determine the Agency who will be declared winner and be eligible for award of the contract. The cost proposal (second pass for shortlisted only) will be evaluated in terms of best value to FIND, price and other factors. The methods of selection are described in the following section. The selected Agency will then be invited for negotiations, if considered necessary.

19 Method of selection

Agency/Agencies that will secure minimum 70 and above marks will be considered as technically qualified for further financial evaluation and award of contract.

The technical quality of the proposal will be given a weightage of 70% and the method of evaluation of technical qualification will follow the procedure provided above. The price bids of only those Agencies who qualify technically will be opened. The proposal with the lowest cost may be given a financial score of 100 and the other proposals given financial scores that are inversely proportionate to their prices. The financial proposal shall be allocated a weightage of 30%. For working out the combined score, FIND will use the following formula:

\text{Total points} = T \ (w) \times T \ (s) + F \ (w) \times \frac{LEC}{EC},

where

- \( T \ (w) \) stands for weight of the technical score.
- \( T \ (s) \) stands for technical score
- \( F \ (w) \) stands for weight of the financial proposal
- \( EC \) stands for Evaluated Cost of the financial proposal
- \( LEC \) stands for Lowest Evaluated Cost of the financial proposal.
The proposals will be ranked in terms of total points scored. The proposal with the highest total points (H-1) will be considered for award of contract and will be called for negotiations, if required.
